PERMANENT ADDRESS

My mom's house

EDUCATION

Harvey Mudd College Bachelor of Science, Physics, May 2013

Honestly, most of it was a sleep deprived and drunken blur

University of Washington, PhD, Mechanical Engineering, Anticipated 2030

Let me just name drop my adviser in case that helps me: [REDACTED]

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

University of Washington                      Research Assistant      Jan 2014-Current

- Mostly sat at my computer and yelled at matlab scripts.
- I have a lab space now that I'm pretty sure I acquired through squatter's rights
- Extensive experience with lab coffeemaker

Lawrence Livermore National Lab      Summer Student      Summer 2011-2014

- I had a motherfucking security clearance!
- And there was a huge ass laser that made fusion
- Get your PhD to get a full time job at a national lab, they said...

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Washington                      Babysitter Teaching Assistant

- Taught undergrad recitations daycare
- I still get greeted by students whose names I never bothered to learn in the first place

COMPUTER SKILLS

Using pretentious typesetting programs, L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X, Facebook, profanity-based debugging techniques
